

The State Fair.

The Fair closed its third annual exhibition in Columbia, on Saturday last, at which there was a very large attendance.

The Phoenix says: "The third annual fair of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society closed on yesterday with the premium awards. In view of all the circumstances of the case, it is conceded that the fair has been quite successful. Many of the departments were well filled. In many cases, the quality of the contributions was excellent. Some of the departments were better filled than usual. The crowd was each day large. The Ladies Bazaar, inside of the building, was an attractive feature of the fair, and was gratified to say that the pecuniary receipts have been considerable. The managers and the fair writers, and all concerned, deserve great credit for the success achieved. We trust that they will, after their busy labor, enjoy the calm of well-earned repose. As for the fair itself, we have done well. The officers have as usual worked hard; and as to the committees, we are inclined to think that their duties have been discharged with more than usual care. The Superintendent of Departments rendered material assistance. We publish this morning the list of awards. They will be noticed with pleasure by the State, as showing what our people are doing, even amid the clouds that overhang our destinies."

Manufactures at Home.

The Keowee Courier is doing good service by bringing into notice the manufacturing advantages of the up country of South Carolina, not only by argument, but recently has published some instructive facts, showing the success of an enterprise in Oconee County that we would like to see imitated in Greenville and in other Counties also.

"There is a tannery and shoe factory near Perryville, in Oconee County, which employs eleven hands, and turns out, in a year, 6,000 hides and 1,200 pairs of coarse boots, besides shoes and finer styles of boots. The proprietor, Mr. Lay, informs the Wallalla Courier that a raw hide, worth $3, is worth from $8 to $12 when tanned, and, when the leather is made into boots and shoes, is worth from $20 to $30. The bark of the oaks which cover the hills of Oconee's worth three times the selling price of the forest lands. Three good trees give a cord of bark worth $5; and yet twenty of these trees, with the land on which they stand, are often sold for $1. It is estimated that Oconee County pays $25,000 a year for boots and shoes, the raw material of which costs $3,000, and may, all of it, be obtained within the County limits. These significant facts are a conclusive argument in favor of home manufactures."

Georgia.

Both branches of the Legislature have passed resolutions denouncing Governor Bullock, and impeaching his veracity. The Senate has repealed the usury laws. The House passed a bill providing for the holding of a special election for Governor, on the second Tuesday in December. The Democrats contend that the integrity of the Republican acting Executive, Mr. Conley, should be trusted.

Taxes.

Tax-payers have their attention called to the official notice of EDWIN F. GARY, State Auditor. From that notice, our people need not expect an extension of time, therefore they would do well to pay, if they can, in time to prevent the addition of the penalty of twenty per cent., which will be added after the 15th of January, 1872.

Hymenaeal.

Last evening at 7 o'clock, Mr. W. J. CROWELL and Miss MAURIE GOWAN, daughter of T. C. GOWAN, Esq., were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the Presbyterian Church by Dr. E. T. BURST; the ceremonies were witnessed by a large number of persons, the house being crowded. A splendid party was given at Mr. G.'s residence, which was largely attended, and all seemed to enjoy themselves, wishing the newly married much felicity.

Preparation for Winter.

Those desiring to keep themselves any way comfortable during the winter's sultry blast, would do well to call at the fashionable furnishing Store of Messrs. SWANDALE & ISAACS, in the Mansion House, and secure a comfortable Overcoat. If you should chance to want any other article in Gentleman's Wear, they can supply it. See advertisement.

Yellow Fever Dying Out in Charleston.

There were no fever deaths in Charleston last Saturday and Sunday, and the disease is fast abating in that city, and many persons are returning. On the 12th there was a heavy white frost. The City Council have ordered a day of thanksgiving on account of the abatement of yellow fever.

Greenville and Columbia Railroad.

The Columbia Phoenix of the 12th inst., says that it is reliably informed that the South Carolina Railroad having obtained a sufficient quantity of stock in the Greenville and Columbia Railroad, now actually control that enterprise.

The Weather.

We have had some rain during the past week, coming down heavily Monday night, Tuesday, old Boreas kept things stirring, and at night there was a heavy killing frost. Winter will now doubtless set in.

Mills House, Charleston.

The above splendid house of entertainment has been re-opened, by Mr. G. W. PARKER, former proprietor, after a thorough overhauling, and will be conducted in its old style.

No Service.

As the pastor of the Presbyterian Church will be absent next Sunday at the meeting of Synod, which meets at Sumter to-day, there will be no service in that Church.

United States Marshal Johnson reports above.

United States Marshal Johnson reports above a hundred arrests in York, Spartanburg and Union Counties, during the past week. Most have made so-called confessions, but none of the Union men have committed any crime.

Colored Paper.

Mr. JAMES BARNETT, paper manufacturer, six miles from the City, received a premium at the State Fair for his colored paper.

State and Other Items.

R. F. Blodgett, son of Foster Blodgett, well known to many of our citizens, has been arrested in Atlanta, upon affidavit of Chas. P. McCall, "that he did, by and through artful means and deceitful practices, obtain from the treasury of the Western and Atlantic Railroad $741.29." He gave bail in the sum of $2,000.

The Republicans have, in late elections, carried the States of Kansas, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. Illinois elects a Republican congressman. New Jersey elects a Democratic Governor.

The Georgia Senate passed resolutions denying the existence of a Ku-Klux organization, and suggesting to the Ku-Klux committee to summon the judges of the Superior Courts as witnesses.

Fourteen thousand families, or about sixty-three thousand persons of all ages and sexes and colors, are now receiving aid from the Chicago Aid and Relief Society.

The "wet ticket" was elected in Newberry, on Tuesday, 7th inst., by a majority of 100. The following is the ticket: Intendants—J. P. Pool; Wardens—Peter Rodlerperger, J. B. Fellers, Osborn Wells, Wm. J. Tarrant.

An enterprising yankee in Florida is reaping a harvest, by selling an oil to the negroes which he promises will make their hair grow out straight like a white man's.

Marion County has been restored to those rights with which martial law generally so seriously interfered. The second proclamation, after admitting the clerical error that placed that quiet county among the proscribed, states that Union will be "honored" with the presence of "the Ginnal's boys in blue."

The friends and acquaintances of Rev. Samuel J. Price, will be pained to hear that he died at Lancaster C. H., on the 1st inst., after a lingering illness.

Congress, upon re-assembling in December, will have before it 750 bills which were pending at the time of adjournment. Of these 440 are in the House awaiting the appointment of the committees for reference. A number of the bills are similar in character, seven of them being for a repeal of the income tax. Ten anti-grab railroad bills are among the bills pending.

The New York Journal of Commerce and World both dwell in terms of fitting indignation upon Grant's South Carolina martial law proclamation, and the outrages which are being perpetrated under it.

Messrs. Louis Robinson, Frank Parr, T. J. Greer, John Dawkins, (colored), and William Steen, of Union County—charged with murder and conspiracy—had a hearing before United States Commissioner Rosser, yesterday. The first five were remanded to jail, to await the action of the grand jury, at the session of the United States Court, which convenes in this city on the fourth Monday of this month. The latter was discharged, there being no evidence against him. Col. F. W. McMaster and J. H. Runkle, Esq., represented the prisoners; Gen. E. C. Worthington for the Government.—Phoenix, 12th inst.

The Over Issue of South Carolina Bonds About $30,000,000.

The New York World of the 6th contains a history of the reported over-issue of State bonds. It says:

The report published in this paper yesterday of the discovery of tremendous over-issues of South Carolina bonds by the State financial agent has created a most profound sensation in financial and commercial circles, an account of the severe losses to which purchasers may be liable, and in social and political circles on account of the depravity to which it so clearly points as existing amongst the irresponsible agents who have been, by bayonet rule, thrust upon the people of the Southern States as Executive State officers. Information received since the publication of the article in question shows it not only to be correct, but even so tempered in the interest of truth and justice towards all as to fall far short of the real condition of affairs. It was stated that the sum of $20,000,000 in bonds of the State of South Carolina had been printed by the American Bank Note Company of this city and passed into the possession of the State financial agent; that every member of the State government was here, from the Governor down, and that a party of the wealthy gentlemen of the State representing the tax-payers were here watching their proceedings and endeavoring to find out the actual financial condition of the State; that it had long been known that the State debt had been fearfully increased, but to what amount it had been impossible to arrive at, as the officials had all refused information on the subject, and the State treasurer had carefully kept the books of his department locked from the inspection of the gentlemen who had wished to investigate them with a view of learning the truth; that the State financial agent had, besides making the over-issue of bonds, so reduced the amounts raised on the credit of the State by a complicated system of commissions to himself, that only some twenty-seven per cent. of money raised by him had ever found its way into the State treasury, and much of this which had been raised to meet maturing obligations, had been used for other purposes, and thus not only leaving the debt unpaid, but increasing the aggregate. In relation to the printing of the bonds, it was stated that the Governor (Scott) had admitted such to be the fact, but had denied that they had all been used, or that it was the intention to put them into the market. Again, it was said that the State agent had issued the bonds, but not on the credit of the State, but on his own individual credit, in which case the State would not be involved, as it could honorably refuse to shoulder the responsibility of them. One thing, however, is certain, that it is impossible for those most interested to get any satisfactory replies to their inquiries from any of the officials. They have tried to have the Governor explain why so great an amount of bonds had been printed if they are not to be used, and also to get from him some decided estimate of the actual indebtedness of the State, but they were only met by evasions and subtleties tending to throw dust in their eyes. Worst of all, it was stated that if all the facts in relation to the over-issue were true, then the State was utterly and irretrievably bankrupt. Now for the new developments. It is discovered almost beyond a doubt that the over-issues are a palpable fact, and that instead of $20,000,000 they will reach the figure of $20,000,000; that of this amount $15,000,000 have been signed, sealed and shipped to Europe for sale there, and that the remainder have been put into market here. But these fearful transactions it is now found are not confined to the State of South Carolina officials. Immense issues of much the same character have been made by those who at present hold control of the finances of the State of North Carolina, and a prominent Southern railroad has been in the same line of business. Regarding these two last it is not possible at this time to give any reliable figures, but in a few days it will be given to the public, together with something official about the South Carolina matter.

Governor Scott's Veto of the Appeal.

The New York Journal of Commerce of Monday says:

Our Washington correspondent has conversed with Governor Scott, of South Carolina, and received from him the emphatic assurance that in no case can the debt of that State exceed $12,000,000. All bonds heretofore sold are genuine, and represent full value received. Interest will be paid promptly on the 1st of January. The Governor thought it probable that sensational reports would be circulated to alarm bondholders, and he desired that the latter should be warned against crediting them.

Things in York.

We gather the following facts from the Yorkville Enquirer, of Thursday, 9th inst: It is now three weeks since the United States authorities commenced making arrests of alleged Ku Klux in this county, and as yet there are no indications that the accused will be granted a preliminary hearing before the United States commissioner previous to the sitting of the district court at Columbia, on the fourth Monday of this month. This delay is mainly attributed to the fact, as we learn, that the time of the officials is preoccupied in receiving voluntary confessions of members of the Ku Klux organization, for whose arrests no orders have been issued. The headquarters of Colonel Merrill are constantly besieged by men of this class, of whom more than three hundred have made confessions of their membership, and quite a number are yet awaiting an opportunity to do likewise. We learn these continued confessions develop nothing differing in character from the confessions alluded to last week.

Since the Enquirer's last report, forty-two persons have been arrested and imprisoned. Ten of them had been arrested and bound to appear for trial previous to the President's proclamation, but some doubts having arisen as to the force of their bond, they were rearrested last week, and allowed the privilege of giving new bonds. All but two of them renewed their bail and were released from confinement.

Of the names heretofore published, J. C. Chambers, J. N. McMillan, and D. M. Stewart have been released from confinement in prison. The total number of arrests made since the 19th ultimo is one hundred and forty-five, of whom one hundred and seven are now in prison; ninety-seven white men and one negro being confined in jail, and ten negroes in the guard-house at York. The jail building, of course, very much crowded with this number of men closely confined within its rooms; but we believe every possible means is adopted to render their situation as comfortable as circumstances will permit.

Be Guided by what you know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing, naturally turn when cast about for the means of relief. They enquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of this ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its safety and efficacy, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, his reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wider range, attempt to thrust upon the hands and down the throats of invalids, their hazardous concoctions, as substitutes for the tonic which to so many years has been a medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada, and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent in this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

THE year is approaching its termination, and, humbly acknowledging the Supreme Ruler of the Universe as the arbiter and controller of its destinies, and in accordance with time-honored custom, and concurring with the Proclamation of the President of the United States, I deem the present a fitting occasion to recommend to the people of South Carolina the adoption of Thursday, the 30th day of November, as a day of solemn thanksgiving to Almighty God for his unnumbered blessings. Reverently assembling in their sanctuaries of prayer, and praise, may they make their humble contribution and acknowledgments, remembering in their orisons the desolate and oppressed, and realizing that he that knoweth his own weakness is the poorest of the poor. And through the holy and impressive influence of these acts of devotion, may we be the better prepared to perform our duties to God and our fellow-men, to resist evil, and conquer temptation, and become more conscious of every pious and praiseworthy service.

Notice.

OFFICE OF AUDITOR OF STATE, COLUMBIA, S. C., November 15, 1871. I having been reported in some of the papers of the State, that a promise had been made by His Excellency Governor R. K. Scott to the late Tax payers' Convention, to extend the time for the collection of taxes for 1871; I would say for the information of all concerned, and for the purpose of doing away with any ill effect which such a report might in the future have on the collection of taxes for 1871, that in a conference with His Excellency this morning, he informed me that he made no such general promise as has been ascribed to him.

Notice.

His Excellency informs me that the Committee of the Tax payers' Convention who waited upon him in reference to matters relating to the collection of taxes after a discussion of the subject, decided that November was the proper time for the collection of taxes in the upper counties; but that in those counties where sea island cotton is grown, payment could not be made until March without serious loss.

His Excellency, therefore, agreed to suspend the collection from those upon the seaboard until that time, where they were unable to pay sooner.

Persons desiring to avail themselves of the benefits of this promise, will be required to file a petition with the County Auditor previous to the time at which the penalty attaches, accompanied by affidavits that returns from crops had not been received; such petitions will be considered.

The public will, therefore, please no reliance upon the report referred to, as I am assured by His Excellency that no extension of time other than those mentioned will be granted.

The collection of taxes for this fiscal year will commence on the 30th of January, and continue until the 15th of January next; after which time the penalties prescribed by law, will attach, and be levied on the collection of taxes.

County Treasurers will proceed at once to enforce the collection of all delinquent taxes for previous years.

EDWIN F. GARY, State Auditor.
